

Ecumenical Community of Michigan Retreat (formerly "LARC")

"Know the Other and Know Ourselves: Prayerful Listening across our Differences"
Monday, October 23, (4:00pm) to Thursday, October 26 (1:00pm)

At the Augustine Center of the Sacramentine Monastery
2798 North US 31, Conway, Michigan 49722 (Petoskey area)

Our Retreat Leader for 2023 is The Rev'd Margaret R. Rose,

Deputy for Ecumenical and Interreligious Relations for The Episcopal Church on the staff of Presiding Bishop Michael Curry. She oversees denominational dialogues and interreligious engagement as they relate to the public commitments of the Episcopal church on anti-racism, peace building and reconciliation, within the United States and internationally. She holds leadership positions in Religions for Peace USA, Shoulder to Shoulder, and is a director of the Harvard Alumnae Association. Prior to her current church wide position, she was Director for Women's Ministries for the Episcopal Church. She has an A.B. from Wellesley College, and an M.Div from Harvard. She serves on the Governing Board of the National Council of Churches in the USA and is a Priest Associate at Church of the Heavenly Rest in New York City.

Know the Other and Know Ourselves:
Prayerful Listening Across Our Differences

Healthy relationships in ecumenical conversation and in political conversation depend on understanding and openness. In our retreat, we will gain insight into our differences of assumptions, backgrounds, histories, and hopes. We will engage in prayer together, in both structured and unstructured conversations, and in meals, recreation, and relaxation.
